

Underwater Egg Hunt

April 15, 2017

Presented by Parks and Recreation

Bicentennial Park Pool

8145 W. Bicentennial Park Drive, Crystal River, 34429

There will be two Egg Hunts for different age groups:

Children ages 0 - 6 hunt from 11:00 - 1:00

Children ages 7 - 12 hunt from 1:00 - 2:30

Bring Your Own Basket to this FREE event

Eggs are turned in after the hunt in exchange for a little nick-nack toy and candy. Only 50 people at a time will be permitted onto the pool deck. While participants wait their turn, there will be food for sale and festivities outside around the pool grounds such as potato sack races, egg races, arts & crafts presented by LOWE'S Kids Clinic, and much more. There will be a separate land base egg hunt outside of the pool area designed especially for little children ages 0 - 3 or for those who cannot swim.
